Plan A Destination Wedding

Doing away with generations-old rituals, and thinking about a wedding in a far-off locale? Destination wedding has become the most sought after wedding options in India. Destination weddings usually have a much smaller guest list with fewer formal functions and more occasions for fun. One reception or you could throw in a cocktail or pool party and there you have a glam celebration with the people who matters the most. Your destination wedding may double as a holiday for several guests and often becomes one that is looked forward to and remembered for life.

Tips before planning your destination wedding:

Pick the Perfect Spot

The destination should be chosen carefully keeping in mind your guests convenience (travel time & budget)

Time It Right

Get a headsup on the anticipated weather conditions and send 'save the date' email well in advance

Take a Trip

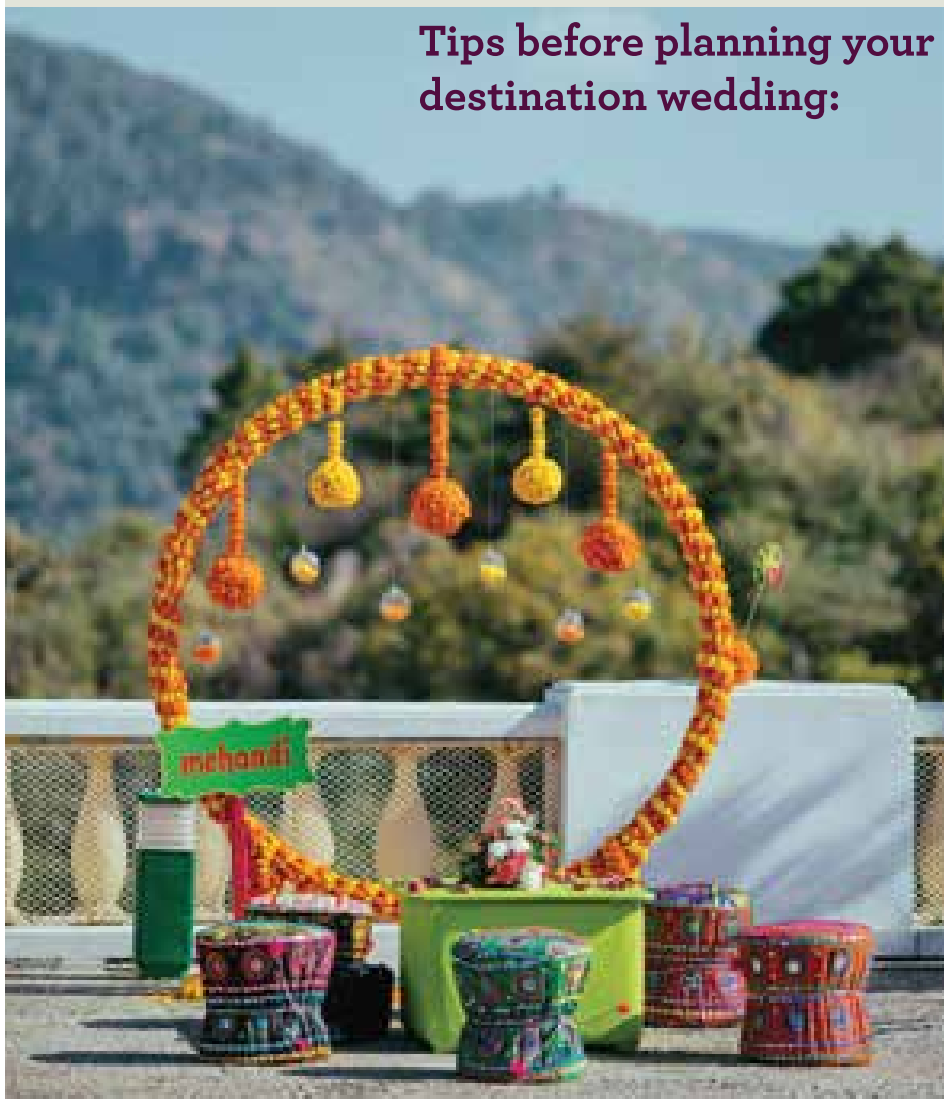

You'll need to schedule tastings with your caterer, see sample bouquets from the florist, plan a hair and makeup session with a local salon and organize activities (golf, tennis, walking tours, museums) for your guests

Take Care of Guests

List information for getting to and from the nearest airport to your wedding locale, host a welcome dinner or brunch, and deliver welcome bags to their rooms

Choose your attire carefully

Don't forget to consider the climate when choosing your wedding dress and deciding on everyone else's attire

Testimonials

BEFITTINGLY MY FIRST FIVE STAR RATING REVIEW!

Spread across 25 acres, locating this oasis won't be strenuous no matter where you're coming from!

We were elated with our accommodation which was tastefully done and decked with all the basics and luxuries one can think of! Sublime is the word to define all the culinary encounters we had at the Jaypee Palace Hotel; so much that while in Agra, we didn't consume even one morsel of food from outside! We were treated to some real gastronomic delights and impeccable service whether we had breakfast at The Grand Buffet or lunch and other snacks at the Pavilion Café or dinner at their fine-dine speciality Indian cuisine restaurant Paatra. The swimming pool and health club with a proper sauna room, steam room and gym were in outstanding condition too! We thoroughly enjoyed using the facilities.

— Pranay Bhargava (New Delhi)
Jaypee Palace Hotel, Agra

BEST OFF-SITE EVER

We visited this one on an off-site of our office. Easy group check-ins were done and we just went gaga over the rooms. Clean, hygienic and airy rooms with a perfect view are what we got!

The bed sheets seemed fresh, even the toiletries were all new and nicely stacked up. The recreational room was also very nice with quirky color combination making us feel kid at heart again. The property is worth every penny with a nature walk suggested early morning and also during late night. The food was again decent with we being more inclined towards the breakfast section rather than the lunch. We loved how multiple varieties were placed before us to choose from. What we liked the most was our evenings where we would just sip our hot tea amidst clouds crossing us and leaving a cool breeze lingering.

SUPERB SERVICE AND CLEANLINESS

I have been travelling all over the world, but this was one of the cleanest hotels I have stayed. The wooden floor was shining! The customer service was absolutely brilliant- even from the point of my arrival at the airport, they responded to calls immediately and helped me with the taxi arrangements.

I used the hotel transport services; the drivers were professional at all times.

The restaurants were the highest quality and service was at high standard!

Thank you to all. My business trip was made much more bearable with the service I received at the resort.

FIRST STAY IN INDIA

Lovely room, we were upgraded to a suite and got a lovely welcome from staff. Pool area and amenities were lovely and because we were leaving early the following day, the staff organized a lovely breakfast box so that we could eat earlier. Highly recommend and thank you!!

ONE OF THE PRICIER HOTELS

This is one of the pricier hotels I stayed in traveling for a month in India, but it was one of the best experiences and I wouldn't stay anywhere else in Delhi. Everything about the property is beautiful and the service and hospitality continually exceeded my expectations, making the price more than worth it. Throughout my stay, staff took such good care of me that this was truly a home away from home. Thank you so much!
